Prayer for choosing an incumbent

Bountiful God,
give to this parish a faithful pastor
who will faithfully speak your word
and minister your sacraments;
an encourager who will equip your people for ministry
and enable us to fulfil our calling.
Give to those who will choose, wisdom, discernment and patience,
and to us give warm and generous hearts,
for Jesus Christ's sake. Amen.

(A Prayer Book for Australia page 212, No. 36)

LIGHTING THE ADVENT CANDLE

As we light the candle of joy,
we remember the stories
of God's loyalty to all creation.
We give thanks for messengers –
the apostles, prophets, artists, sages, faithful ones –
present in every age,
who bring us the good news of God's restoring love;
and we shout with joy,
trusting that God
is with us and before us,
and that joy will be born anew in us.

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT

Advent 3 John 1: 6-8, 19-28. A voice crying in the wilderness.

The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not overcome it. There was a man sent from God whose name was John. He came as a witness to testify to the light ... (Jn 1: 5-7a)

In today's reading we hear how John's activities have come to the attention of the religious authorities in Jerusalem who then send messengers to check out who he is. He responds first by telling them who he is not. I am not the Messiah, nor am I Elijah, he tells them. When pressed, he says, rather enigmatically, 'I am a voice crying out in the wilderness. "Make straight the way of the Lord"'.

A voice crying out in the wilderness is an evocative image, suggesting a lonely, or at least solitary figure, proclaiming a message that no one wants to hear, because it is an 'inconvenient truth', as Sarah Bachelard reminded us at Benedictus last week. Yet despite his strange appearance and a less than conciliatory message of repentance, people flocked to hear the Baptist's confronting message and to be baptised by him.

John knew his place in the story. In response to the messengers' questions, 'Who are you? What do you have to say about yourself?' he answers (and I paraphrase), 'I am not the one you are looking for. I'm not the main act. My job is just to pave the way – to point him out when he comes.' He knew what Richard Rohr often enjoins his readers to remember: 'This isn't about you.' I concluded last week's reflection by asking if we dared, like John the Baptist, to believe we had a place in God's redemptive story. John learned the song that was his to sing, the work that was his to do, in the wilderness – the archetypal place of formation and calling in the scriptures.

What is our role? Today's reading challenges us with the same question John was asked: Who do we say we are? What do we have to say about ourselves? As individuals and as a community? For John, the answer is simple: 'I am a voice crying in the wilderness'. How might we answer? Perhaps we too find ourselves in the wilderness. With declining church attendance and in an increasingly secularised society, as people of faith we might find ourselves marginalised in our social, even family groups.

How then might we tend and share the light that has been given us at this time and in this place?

TODAY

BLUE CHRISTMAS Service Today 4 - 5 pm

The joy of Christmas can be hard to celebrate when much loved people are missing in our lives. This reflective prayer service creates space for us to find some peace and comfort in a busy season. It provides a time for us to remember those we have lost through bereavement, illness or estrangement and find strength for a new day.

25 YEARS A PRIEST!

The Revd Anne Dudzinski was one of eleven women ordained as priests 25 years ago on 20 December. Standing alongside her in St Saviour's Cathedral were Elaine Gifford, Ruth Dudley, Daphne May, Margaret Streatfield, Gillian Varcoe, Vicky Cullen, Gail Tabor, Pamela Phillips, Ann Dittmar-McCollim and Julie Kelley (dec). Chris Littlejohns, Kevin Stone and Haydn Swinbourn were also ordained on that wonderful day. It was a great and major milestone in the long struggle to have church leadership open to all of God's people. We are so thankful to God for these leaders whose gifts have enriched our communities, parishes and diocese immeasurably!

IN THE PARISH

HOLISITC CARE NURSING MINISTRIES - Help Urgently Needed!

We are looking for someone who can assist one of our clients with their shopping during the week of 17 December and then once a week from the week commencing 7 January for four weeks. The wonderful volunteer who has been doing this is going away and so we urgently need someone to help.

The client can get the flexi-bus from her home to Jamison Shops but she has mobility issues and can't manage to walk around the shops without wheelchair assistance.

This involves the volunteer collecting a wheelchair from Holy Covenant and walking it across to Jamison shops to meet the flexi-bus. She may need to be pushed around to any or all of the following; the bank, the newsagents, the chemist, Aldi and Coles. The client then gets the flexi-bus home.

If there is time and the volunteer is willing, a coffee stop and a chat is always much appreciated.

If you can help with all or any of these weeks or need more information please contact Cathy Winters on 0418450520.

Pastoral letter – to be read out in Services on Sunday

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

Appointment to the See: Diocese of Bendigo

I am writing to share the news that our colleague and friend, The Right Reverend Dr. Matthew Brain, has been elected as the 10th Bishop of Bendigo.

As you know, +Matt has been in this Diocese since 2010 when he came from North West Australia to lead Synergy Youth and Children and to teach at St Mark's National Theological Centre. Since then, +Matt has served with aplomb in a variety of roles, most recently as an Assistant Bishop responsible for Ministry Training and Development. We do wish +Matt, Rachael and their children, every blessing as they transition to this significant new responsibility at the beginning of 2018.

I realise this is the second piece of surprising Episcopal news you have received in the past week and no doubt there will be mixed emotions as you process the prospect of both our departures in the New Year. I want to assure you that God sovereignly works all things for the ultimate good of His people, and I am therefore convinced he will attend to all the future needs of this great Diocese. In particular, God has provided and will continue to provide the people we need in this considerable time of transition in diocesan life. Your prayer for our Vicar-General, Bishop Trevor, are much valued.

Please also pray for +Matt and his family as they now prepare to move and take up this new ministry.

Warmly,

The Right Reverend Stuart Robinson // Bishop of Canberra & Goulburn
8 December 2017
