“You have grown”! More than usual, at this Christmas, children will be told this. Many have not been able to be with extended family and even with the benefits of video calls, a child’s growth impresses most when in person.

In our Bible readings this summer, Jesus was growing up too. After 8 days he was circumcised and named Jesus. A little later he was brought to the temple and a sacrifice was offered. Simeon and the prophet Anna approached the family praising God and speaking words of a holy and special future for the boy. Mary and Joseph were amazed.

The wise men, the Magi, sought and found Jesus. They worshipped him and brought their gifts.

Luke 2: 41-52 tells of the holy family come from Nazareth to Jerusalem for the great Passover festival. They became separated and where did the desperate parents find the 12 year old boy? In the temple with the teachers who were amazed at Jesus’ questions and answers. His parents were astonished.

Instead of saying “You have grown physically” Mary and Joseph could say “you have grown spiritually and intellectually”. Can we say the same? Children, teens and adults grow spiritually. We mature in curiosity, understanding and awareness of God’s presence.

Jesus shows us God in human form. We learn about God from Jesus. We see, hear and know God in ways never before possible. God loves us, really loves us, and if we come to him in prayer, he may think “You have grown”.

C.S.Lewis in his poem “As the Ruin Falls” expresses the idea that is only foolish talk when he says that he loves someone, since he must recognise that he is self-seeking through and through. He wants the one he loves and God and his friends to provide what he wants. He ‘loves’ them because it suits him very well to do so. I think we know what he means. Having confessed how flawed our love is, we still choose to love and to offer that love as sincerely and truly as we know how.

Let’s grow in 2022. Let’s grow together in spirit and love.

A GRATEFUL CLIENT

Last month we had an older gentleman and a lady visit the St John's Care Centre. They approached me quietly and the lady - who I will call T - asked if I could assist the gentleman. I was wondering why the gentleman - who I will call J - didn't speak for himself. He just kept looking at the lady with hopeful eyes as if she held the key to his salvation.

T told me that J couldn't speak. He has a device which he applies to his neck when he needs to communicate something. T also said that most people don't usually understand what J has to say which can be extremely frustrating.

T explained a little more about J's situation as we sat down with a cup of coffee. She is his best friend and companion and he relies on her for most of the week. He told her that his car registration ran out and that he was unable to attend his regular hospital appointments. He is meant to attend them twice a week in Calvary Hospital, Bruce.

J said he hates relying on T and needs his independence. She explained that most of his payments from Centrelink were allocated to pay for his medications, so there was nothing left for his car. That's when T persuaded J to come with her to St John's Care and ask for help.

When I asked J how many months payment for car registration he would be happy with, he responded by writing it down - "3 months would be amazing", he wrote.

I decided to chat with our Executive Manager to see what we could do to support J with his car registration. It was decided that SJC could assist with registration for the whole year.

I made sure that we prepared ample food supply for J while the car registration was being sorted out.

When I told J that his car registration will be paid by SJC for the whole year, it looked like the flood gates opened and tears were pouring down his face. It was joyful and sad at the same time Joyful as it was tears of gratitude, sad because he couldn't speak. It was quiet tears.

We also provided his friend T with a Christmas hamper and some food vouchers for both to brighten their day.

J wrote " THANK YOU! Please tell your donors I am very grateful." on the notepad and handed it to me folded. That piece of paper was still wet from tears when I opened it to read.

I would like to pass J's heartfelt appreciation to you as he asked me in his note. You make it special for each and every one of St John's Care clients.

Nailia, SJC Case Manager

Come tarry with me

And he walks with me and he talks with me and he tells me I am his own. And the joy we share as we tarry there, non-other has ever known. (Christian song)

I often hear this song when I have the Gospel Music of Elvis playing in my car but it rings quieter in my mind and heart when I am out walking. The perfume of the dew laden grass and the absolute delight of hearing the small voice of the blue wren tucked away in the thicket, and the melodious solo of the Black bird. Sounds and sights of summer often break in this Christmas season by the perpetual harassing cry of the baby Galahs pestering their mothers for food, and more food! I thank God for the sights and sounds of Christmas. I cherish the time-of-day walking with God, talking to God. What a joy and a privilege to be able to share it. This Christmas I am finding I am thanking God more and more for Jesus. May your Christmas be one of joy as you 'tarry' with Jesus and may you be the light that shines for many leading others to Emmanuel, the God who is with us always.

God's peace and blessings for this precious and holy season. Anne, servant of the Lord.
